

As a very small business man who is not a member of any "Small Business Association" I find the receipt of unsolicited faxes extremely offensive and darn expensive. We simply must have a NO FAX LIST. I, and the other business people with whom I associate have no objection to receiving faxes from those with whom we have a business relationship- even invite it. Something must be done

CCC

CHARLES C. CULOTTA, Jr.

Patterson, La.